BROADVIEW.

BROADVIEW, June 7.—This community is deeply grieved over the death of one of its sweet young ladies, Miss Jessie Hogue, who departed this life at 10:45 o'clock Friday evening, June 5, 1938. She had been ill for some time, but her ambition would not permit her to stop school and take the needed rest, and five weeks ago, she fell a victim to typhoid fever. She had every care, the best medical aid, and loving friends watched faithfully over her, but it was the Lord's will that she should be taken away.

"Oh, cast thy every care on Him,
Thou weary, burdened one;
And raise to heaven the trusting prayer,
Thy will, not mine, be done."

Jessie was 20 years old. She professed religion eight years ago, and was a consistent member of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church at Glenwood. Rev. M. E. Gabard, her pastor, conducted the funeral services at Glenwood Sunday at 8 a. m., speaking words of warning, encouragement and consolation to the friends and mourning relatives. After the services they proceeded to beautiful Rose Hill Cemetery, where her remains were laid to rest. Her father, mother and three sisters, and a host of warm friends are left upon the shores of time to deeply mourn the loss of an obedient daughter, kind and affectionate sister, and a cheerful and genial associate. As a schoolmate and friend of Jessie, we express our heart-felt sympathy to the bereaved family.

BEN.

BEN, June 6.—We are forcibly reminded that June is the "month of flowers." A blind person, wandering aimlessly in the open air, would know from the sweet scents and joyous songs of summer birds that June had ushered in its train of flowers, and the eye that delights in perfect forms of beauty may linger long and fill the soul with delight when June roses are in full bloom.

MAPLE MOUNT.

MAPLE MOUNT, June 6.—We have been quite busy for the past few weeks, and consequently we have been unable to pen anything for the HERALD.

Since our last letter, quite a number of nice fatted lambs have been shipped from Godwin, though the number of shipments has not been equal to last year's. Mr. C. Godwin shipped one car of stock from Godwin Saturday; also J. G. Thomas some stock last Saturday.

The unusually early ripening of the wheat of this season has forced some of the farmers out into the harvest field already; but we hear the yield of wheat will not be as great as last year's crop, and the potato crop will be very short, owing to the dry season.

Vegetation needs rain badly at the present writing, and gardens are beginning to assume parched look.

Mr. William Craig and wife, of Ohio county, are attending the bedside of Mr. Craig's brother, Mr. S. S. Craig, who is but little improved.

Mr. Ernest White, we are sorry to state, is on the sick list this week.

Little Miss Hightower, of Culleoka, spent several days recently with Mr. and Mrs. David Hooten.

Wheat and oats will be harvested in a few days. Most of the wheat in this section is suffering from rust. Oats are very fair, considering the dry weather.

Mrs. Margaret Howard, of your city, visited relatives in this neighborhood not long since.

Success to the HERALD and its host of readers. THELMA.

BRYANT STATION.

BRYANT STATION, June 6.—News is scarce in this part of the county, but I will try to collect my few scattered thoughts and give you what news I have gathered.

SHADY GROVE.

SHADY GROVE, June 6.—Several weeks have elapsed since our town was mentioned in your paper, during which time many scenes have shifted and changed on the canvas of time. Some fragile barges have been launched upon the ocean of life, some have embarked upon the matrimonial sea, and while some are hovering on the borderland of eternity, for others the gates of death have swung wide open and they have passed through to try the realities of another world.

It is with much regret that the many friends of Mrs. Sallie Nichols Woody learn of her dangerous and perhaps fatal illness at her home at Jones' Valley.

Mrs. Bettie McDonald Orton passed away at her home at Bluff Point, and the interment took place at "Old Well" cemetery, with services at the grave by Jno. D. Evans. This making the fourth time he has similarly officiated in this family.

Mr. Jno. Eastland died last Tuesday and was buried in the Dunlap churchyard the following day.

A very interesting Children's Day service was held here last Sunday evening. The program was too lengthy to give, but especially worthy of mention were the recitations by Miss Mary Len Anderson, "Who Bids for Children," and "Thy Kingdom Come," by Miss Casey Anderson. Two songs—"The Herald Pinion" and "Diamonds in the rough"—by Eugene Harrington, soprano, and John Dunn, bass. Miss Mollie Reeves read an original essay on "The Elixir of Intoxicants," and Mr. Ewen Smith recited "Stop Putting Them In," both of which were exceptionally good. Miss Vivienne Harrington and John Anderson sang, "We Shall Again May Pass This Way," which was much appreciated by all who love a good song.

Mrs. H. B. Nichols, after a pleasant visit to relatives near this place, has returned to her home near Nashville.

On last Thursday evening at four o'clock, at the residence of Mrs. Paris McMeen, Mr. Ben R. Mobley was united in marriage to Mrs. Sackie Barnes, widow of the late Maj. Barnes, of Nashville. SPRING HILL.

Closing Exercises of Rosethorp, Held Last Friday Night.

SPRING HILL, June 6.—Rosethorp School rounded up its year's work last Friday night in a bright halo of success. The rendering of the programme by the little folks was enjoyed by an overflowed house. The exercises consisted of humorous and patriotic recitations, songs and music. The catchy song, "Kissing Papa Through the Telephone," was sweetly sung by Dell Buchanan and Pauline Martin. "The Garland of Roses," gathered from Rosethorp, was recited by five girls—Zella Wilkes, Bessie Orman, Nora McMahon, Ra Witt, Annie Banks and Cloy Buchanan. The musical programme was rendered by Cloy Harris Buchanan, Zella Ewing Wilkes, Pauline Martin, Dell Buchanan, Renie Alexander and Misses Orman. Selections from the masters were executed.

Part second was "Mother Goose's Reception," by the entire school. Miss Ophelia Harlan representing Mother Goose. The characters were gowned in quaint and pretty costumes, which presented a lovely view in the songs, drill, march and dialogue.

A chorus "Hush-a-bye," closed the exercises.

A NARROW ESCAPE.

Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Groton, S. D. "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds. I gave it a trial, took all eight bottles. It has cured me, and thank God I am saved and now a well and healthy woman." Trial bottles free at Woldridge & Irvine's drugstore. Regular size 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed or price refunded. CULLEOKA.

CULLEOKA, June 7.—Our schools have all closed for the summer vacation. The Graded School closed May 27 with a most entertaining program by the pupils. It was new and interesting throughout, and showed the marked ability of the teachers to train and the pupils to learn. Probably the best job of the kind in the new school house inspired them anew. After the entertainment, the ladies served ices, and were fortunate enough to clear about $7.

On last Friday night the Debating Society of Culleoka Academy had an interesting debate—a few recitations and debates in addition. The question, "Resolved, that the United States was justifiable in waging war with Spain," was ably discussed, and the judges decided in favor of the negative. The members of the society show marked improvement in their work, and show that their society is a great help to them.

The school at Rockdale closed Friday. Mr. N. S. Stephens gave general satisfaction to all the teachers in our town and community. As yet we have had no election of teachers; has taken place, but suppose the same parties will have charge again.

Mr. Stephens and family are visiting in Columbia. Mr. Graham will spend the vacation at his home in Virginia.

Her many friends in this community were saddened to hear of the death of Mrs. W. J. Frierson. During her stay of several years in our village, she endeared herself to all with whom she came in contact, by her sweet womanliness and gentle Christian bearing toward everyone. We deeply sympathize with Bro. Frierson in his great grief, but we know his comfort will not fail to help him bear the burden of sorrow. God knows all, and will not forget his faithful minister in this hour of sore need.

Mrs. Jerry and Mrs. Jack Howell have felt griefs, but rest, pang, in the death of their mother. We cannot understand the mysterious movements of Providence, but He doeth all things for the best. We can only trust Him and submit, feeling all is well.
